IN TERMS OF SEBI (PROHIBITION OF INSIDER TRADING) REGULATIONS, 2015) & SEBI (PROHIBITION OF FRAUDULENT AND UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES RELATING TO THE SECURITIES MARKET) REGULATIONS, 2003

INTRODUCTION

- 1. Insider trading means dealing (including buying as well as selling) in securities of a company listed/traded on any stock exchange in India based on, or when in possession of, unpublished price sensitive information.

With a view to govern the conduct of insiders on matters relating to insider trading, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) had formulated Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as 'The Regulations').

Sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 9 inter alia, requires all listed companies to frame a Code of Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of trading by insiders by adopting the minimum standards as set out in Schedule B to the Regulations.

Sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 8 requires all listed companies to formulate and publish on its website, Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information by adopting the minimum standards as set out in Schedule A to the Regulations.

Ksolves India Limited ("Ksolves") has formulated this Insider Trading Policy for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of trading by Insiders' ("Policy").

The Policy has been formulated by the Board on October, 27, 2020 and shall be applicable with immediate effect.

All the Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons of Ksolves are advised to carefully go through and familiarize themselves with and adhere to the Regulations and the Policy.

The Company endeavors to preserve the confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information ("UPSI") and to prevent misuse of such information. The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all laws and regulations.

Every Director, Officer, Designated Person and connected person of the Company has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all such UPSI obtained in the course of his or her work at the Company. No Director, Officer, Designated Officer and connected persons may use his or her position or knowledge of the Company to gain personal benefit or to provide benefit to any third party.

The Company hereby stipulates that this Insider Trading Policy is to be complied by all directors, officers, Designated Persons and connected persons.

- 2. The objective of this policy is to:
- a. prohibit the communication of unpublished price-sensitive information except for legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations;
 - b. prohibit trading in the securities of the Company while in possession of unpublished price sensitive information;
 - c. enable disclosure of trading by Insiders; and
 - d. ensure appropriate, fair and timely disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information.

- e. initiate inquiry/ investigation in case of leak or a suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information.
- f. take disciplinary / penal / corrective actions, if so required, in case of any violation of the Rules.

5 Restrictions on Communication and Trading by Insiders

5.1 Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information:

- 5.1.1 No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Explanation – For the purpose of illustration, the term “legitimate purpose” shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations.

- 5.1.2 No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- 5.1.3 Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
- 5.1.3.1 entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - 5.1.3.2 not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made

generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts

5.1.4 However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

5.2 Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

5.2.1 No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Explanation –When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession

However, the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following: –

5.2.1.1 the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of the Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision and the said shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. The Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information;

5.2.1.2 the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of the code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

5.2.1.3 the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.

5.2.1.4 the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

5.2.1.5 in the case of non-individual insiders: –

5.2.1.5.1 the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade;and

5.2.1.5.2 appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that the Code and the regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

5.2.1.5.3 the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with the procedure hereinafter specified.

5.2.2 In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board.

6 Internal Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report trading by Insiders:

The Code of Conduct is formulated to regulate, monitor and report trading by Designated Persons and other connected persons towards achieving compliance with SEBI regulations, adopting the minimum standards set out in Schedule B thereto, without diluting the provisions thereof, in any manner.

6.1 Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role ("designated persons as defined in clause 1.9 of this Code") in the Company shall be governed by the following internal code of conduct and they may execute trades subject to compliance with this Code and SEBI Regulations.

6.2 The compliance officer shall report to the board of directors and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the board of directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the board of directors but not less than once in a year.

6.3 Need to know:

6.3.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated, provided or allowed access, to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

“need to know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.

6.4 Designated Persons and immediate relatives of designated persons in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

6.5 Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with these regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the designated persons. The trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

- 6.6 The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- 6.7 Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes
 - 6.7.1 immediate relatives
 - 6.7.2 persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
 - 4.7.2 Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them.

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

- 6.8 All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.
- 6.9 The Company shall also prescribe a process for how and when people are brought 'inside' on sensitive transactions. Individuals should be made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of Inside Information, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information
- 6.10 Limited access to confidential information:
 - 6.10.1 Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

6.11 Policy for Determination Of Legitimate Purpose

For the purpose of these Rules and the SEBI Regulations, sharing of UPSI in furtherance of Legitimate Purpose shall include sharing of UPSI in the ordinary course of business of the Company by an Insider with the following (including but not limited to), provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these Rules or the SEBI Regulations:

Customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors.

6.12 Notice Or Confidentiality / Non-Disclosure Agreement

- 6.12.1 Any person in receipt of UPSI in furtherance of a legitimate purpose shall be considered as an insider for the purpose of these Rules and the SEBI Regulations
- 6.12.2 The details so obtained shall be maintained in a digital database with adequate internal controls and checks, such as time stamping, audit trails, etc. to ensure non-tampering of the database.
- 6.12.3 The Designated Persons and Employees, sharing UPSI in furtherance of legitimate purposes, shall issue a due notice or enter into a confidentiality / non-disclosure agreement with such insider to maintain confidentiality of the UPSI in compliance with these Rules and the SEBI Regulations.

6.13 Digital Database of Recipients Of UPSI and Recording of dealing in securities:

6.13.1 The Designated Persons and employees, sharing UPSI in furtherance of legitimate purposes, shall inform to the Compliance Officer, the Name and Permanent Account Number or such other identifier authorized by law or such other details, as may be required, of such persons or entities with whom UPSI is shared under these Rules.

6.13.2 The details so obtained shall be maintained in a digital database (KSOLVES I-TRACK PORTAL) with adequate internal controls and checks, such as time stamping, audit trails, etc. to ensure non-tampering of the database.

6.13.3 The Digital Database so maintained shall be preserved for a period of not less than 8 (eight) years after completion of the relevant transaction or for such specific period as may be specified by SEBI in case of proceedings, if any.

6.13.4 All the information sought under the Rules are to be submitted on the KSOLVES I-TRACK PORTAL. Members may submit the details online and in case of technical difficulty, members may reach out to the Legal and Corporate Secretarial Team at cs@ksolves.com for submitting the same.

6.14 Dealing With Analysts/Institutional Investors/Media

- a) The trading period, during which trading on Stock exchanges is permitted as hereinafter provided is called "trading window";
- b) The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 2 days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published and shall remain closed for further 48 hours after the information becomes generally available. When the trading window is closed, the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in the Company's securities in such period. Trading window shall also be inter-alia closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results for that quarter.
- c) All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in Point No. (b) Above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- d) In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.

10.2 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated Persons of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

10.3 The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, which shall be forty-eight hours after the information, becomes generally available.

- 10.4 The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

11. Pre-Clearance of Trades

All Designated Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company in their own name or in the name of their dependent family members, when the trading window is open and if the value of the proposed trades is above Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value) (It is advisable to record all the trades irrespective to the value of trade), shall obtain pre-clearance of the transactions from the Compliance Officer for each transaction.

Illustration:

Mr. J (Designated Person) holds 25,000 equity shares of the Company as at March 31, 2015. Mr. J intends to sell 5,000 equity shares in three lots as under:

Lot 1 comprising 1,000 equity shares	During quarter ended June, 2015	Assuming Ksolves Share Price was Rs. 380	Traded value of shares would be Rs. 3,80,000
Lot 2 comprising 2,000 equity shares	During quarter ended June, 2015	Assuming Ksolves Share Price was Rs. 385	Traded value of shares would be Rs. 7,70,000
Lot 3 comprising balance 2,000 equity shares	During quarter ended September, 2015	Assuming Ksolves Share Price was Rs. 390	Traded value of shares would be Rs. 7,80,000

Mr. J need not obtain pre-clearance for selling the first lot (as the traded value does not exceed Rs. 10 Lacs during a calendar quarter). However, before the sale of the second lot of 2,000 shares Mr. J shall pre-clear the transaction as the aggregate traded value of his dealings exceeds the threshold of Rs. 10 Lacs during a calendar quarter.

During the calendar quarter ended September 2015, Mr. J may execute sale of 2,000 shares in lot 3 without requiring pre-clearance i.e. he can enter into fresh sale transaction(s) provided the traded value of such fresh transaction is upto Rs. 10 Lacs during that quarter, without seeking pre-clearance.

However, pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan and trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan. Further, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade. The pre-clearance procedure shall be hereunder:

- 11.1 An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure 1) to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Specified Person/Designated Person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by the Compliance Officer in that behalf.

- 11.2 A Declaration (Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Person incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
- 11.2.1 That the Designated Person does not have any access or is not in possession of “Price Sensitive Information” up to the time of signing of the Declaration.
 - 11.2.2 That in case the Specified Employee has access to or receives “Price Sensitive Information” after the signing of the Declaration but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall forthwith inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she shall refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public and after a lapse of 48 hours thereof.
 - 11.2.3 That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - 11.2.4 That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- 11.3 Before granting pre-clearance in form (Annexure 3), the Compliance Officer shall have due regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- 11.4 All Specified Persons/Designated Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven trading days from the date of the approval of pre-clearance. The Specified Persons/Designated persons shall file within 2 (two) days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal and changes in the holdings, with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed (Annexure 4).
- 11.5 If the order is not executed within seven trading days from the date the approval is given, the employee/director must seek fresh pre-clearance of the transaction.
- 11.6 All Specified Persons/Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction (shall not execute a contra trade) i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Specified Persons/Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case any contra trade is executed inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.
- 11.7 The Compliance Officer may lift the ban on contra trade in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.
- 11.8 The authority for pre-clearance of trades shall be as under:

Trading by following Designated Persons (including by their immediate relatives)	Authority for Pre-clearance
Directors/Promoters	Chairperson of Audit Committee and/ or Compliance Officer
Compliance Officer	Chief Financial Officer
Other Designated Persons	Compliance Officer

12. Disclosures of Trading by Insiders

12.1 The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.

12.2 The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities, if any permitted by law and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.

12.3 The disclosures made under this Clause shall be maintained by the Company for a minimum period of five years, in such form as may be specified by SEBI;

12.4 Initial Disclosure

12.4.1 Every promoter or member of promoter group, key managerial personnel director and Designated person of the Company shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of the regulations taking effect, to the Company within thirty days of the regulations taking effect;

12.4.2 Every person on appointment as key managerial personnel or a director of the Company or upon becoming a promoter or member of promoter group shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter.

12.5 Continual Disclosures.

12.5.1 Every promoter or member of the promoter group, designated person, and director of the Company shall disclose to the Company the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees or such other value as may be specified by SEBI;

12.5.2 The Company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

Explanation. — It is clarified for the avoidance of doubts that the disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure under this sub-clause, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified in clause 8.5.1.

12.6 Annual Disclosure:

Every promoter or member of promoter group, key managerial personnel director and designated person of the Company shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as 31st day of every year, to the Company within 7 days of the closure of financial year.

12.7 Disclosures by other connected persons.

12.7.1 The Company may, at its discretion require any other connected person or class of connected persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in securities of the Company in such form and at such frequency as may be determined by the Company in order to monitor compliance with SEBI regulations and this Code.

13. Trading By Portfolio Managers On The Behalf Of Insiders.

a) The code is also made applicable to insiders who engage Portfolio Managers to trade in shares and hence the insiders are expected to take due precaution while trading in securities through Portfolio Managers by:

- Informing Portfolio Managers about closure of trading window
- Ensuring to seek pre clearance approval.
